Dear Patients, Colleagues, and Friends,

Little did I ever think that a kid from Central Illinois would end up in a Chicago suburb and stay for 36 years, yet Colonial Dental Group has been my dental home since 1984 and Glenview my family's home since 1988. After completing a General Practice Residency at Illinois Masonic Medical Center, working in a Chicago dental practice, and teaching at the University of Illinois College of Dentistry, Colonial Dental Group offered me the opportunity to join their wonderful practice with Drs. Paul Justen and David Dooley. At the time it was said "Nobody doesn't like Glenview", a play on the local baking company Sara Lee's slogan. It has been our home since then. My family and I enjoyed growing with the community, schools, organizations (especially the Rotary of Club of Glenview-Sunrise for me), and friends that we have made here.

With great appreciation for the confidence that you have shown in me and the friendship you've extended to me and my family, I've decided that this is the right time for me to step down from my clinical practice to allow Colonial Dental Group to enjoy and benefit from the new energy for your future dental care from Dr. Alexander Quezada and our new associate, Dr. Danielle Duarte, who will join the practice July 6. Many of you know Dr. Quezada as he has been with the practice since 1996. He is a very talented dentist and is leading an exceptionally skilled and caring team of employees who strive to treat you like family. Dr. Duarte comes from a medical family, graduated from the University of Notre Dame (another Domer!), and received her DDS degree from Marquette University School of Dentistry. Her completion of the General Practice Residency at Loyola Medical Center in June will provide her with additional experience in providing you with excellent dental care. We are so fortunate to have Dr. Duarte join the practice and hope that you will welcome and get to know her as you did Dr. Quezada and me.

I will still be involved with non-clinical dentistry as an officer for the Chicago Dental Society until the end of 2024. That will certainly continue to challenge me in many ways, as I hope to give back to the profession that I chose as my career. In the spare time that I can find I hope to travel with my wife and family as the pandemic hopefully passes, enjoy more biking, and catch up with friends and family in a more relaxed way.

The team at Colonial Dental Group and the many specialists we work with will continue to provide you with the outstanding care that you have grown to expect over the years. I will be completing my time at Colonial Dental Group on July 2 and will be transitioning the continuation of your dental care needs to Drs. Quezada and Duarte. Above all, I have valued your trust and friendship as we've worked together to provide you with the best dental care for your needs. Thank you for supporting me and Colonial Dental Group over the years.

Sincerely,

David B Lewis Jr DDS
